

Refugee Identity Construction in Educational Contexts

Mir Abdullah Miri
University of Bath

How it all began

- Journey from Afghanistan to the UK: from a teacher-scholar to a refugee.
 - Over 10 years as a university lecturer.
 - Programme manager and trainer with the British Council.
 - Researcher and consultant in international educational organisations.
 - Pursuing a PhD.
- Life as a Refugee in the UK:
 - Resettlement process: Staying in hotels.
 - Family's educational journey:
 - My wife's ESOL and Functional Skills courses
 - My son's educational achievements, including speech development.
 - Applying for a new PhD in the UK.
 - Community Engagement: Volunteering with Bath Welcomes Refugees
 - Getting involved in research activities related to refugees.
